Headline:
Another fine and sunny day for most areas.

Today:
After a chilly start most areas will be fine, dry and sunny and feeling warm. Cloudier in the far north of Scotland though and windy in the far southwest.

Tonight:
Fine end to the day but quickly turning chilly with mostly clear skies. Some North Sea coasts of Scotland and northeast England may turn cloudier. Breezy in the far SW.

Saturday:
Dry with hazy sunshine for most, perhaps some patchy low cloud along North Sea coasts of Scotland and northeast England. Warm across western areas, but feeling cooler in the east.

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Dry with plenty of sunshine on Sunday, although a little cloudier in the east. Staying fine in the south, but turning more unsettled elsewhere with rain and showers spreading southeast.
